

2 Corinthians 5:16-6:2

- 16a. Therefore we recognize no man from now on according to the flesh
- b. even though we have known Christ
according to the flesh
- c. yet we know Him
now
thus no longer
- 17a. Therefore If any man is in Christ
- b. [he] [is] new creation
- c. the old things passed away
- d. behold new things have come
- 18a. Now things are all these from God
- b. who reconciled us
to Himself
through Christ
- c. and (who) gave us the ministry of reconciliation
- 19a. Namely, that God was reconciling the world in Christ
to Himself
- b. counting not trespasses against them their
- c. and He has committed the word to us of reconciliation

20a. Therefore we are ambassadors For Christ,

b. As though God were entreating though us

c. we beg you
on behalf of Christ

d. (you) be reconciled
to God

21a. He made Him
to be sin who knew sin
on our behalf no

b. that we might become the righteousness in Him of God

6:1a. And working together
with Him

b. we urge you also

c. to receive the grace not of God
in vain

2a. for He says

b. I listened
at the acceptable time to you

c. and I helped you
on the day
of salvation

d. behold now is the time acceptable

e. behold now is the day
of salvation
